Erik W. Yoder is a Senior Legal Counsel at Longbridge Financial.

Yoder brings extensive legal expertise to their role, focusing on financial services within the banking sector. Their background includes significant contributions in roles such as Associate General Counsel at Reverse Mortgage Funding, where they were involved in mortgage loan services and home equity conversion mortgage offerings. This experience highlights a deep understanding of consumer finance and regulatory compliance within the mortgage industry.

Prior to their work in financial services, Yoder served as an Assistant Public Defender for the State of Maryland. This position honed their skills in legal advocacy and case management within the government sector. Yoder holds a Doctor of Law from American University Washington College of Law and a Bachelor of Science from Clemson University, providing a strong academic foundation for their legal career.
