Marcus Pratt is an Attorney at Korde & Associates, P.C., in Lowell, MA where he concentrates in the representation of institutional lenders in residential foreclosures and consumer bankruptcies. Prior to joining the attorney staff at Korde in 2012, he served as a paralegal in the Firm's bankruptcy department for several years. Mr. Pratt is a graduate of Saint Anselm College in Manchester, NH (B.A., magna cum laude, 2008) and Suffolk University Law School in Boston, MA (J.D., cum laude, 2012). He was a production editor of the Suffolk University Journal of Health & Biomedical Law, and also received a certificate of distinction in the Law School's Business Law and Financial Services Concentration. Mr. Pratt is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the States of Connecticut, Maine, and New Hampshire, as well as before the United States District Court for all four (4) districts and the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. In 2015, he co-authored the third edition of Moving for Relief from the Automatic Stay in Bankruptcy published by Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (MCLE), and in 2018, he was a contributing author for the most recent edition of Bankruptcy Practice in Massachusetts, also published by MCLE. He has previously served as a panelist at events hosted by the Massachusetts Bar Association and Boston Bar Association. In 2019, Attorney Pratt was selected as a recipient of the Picture the Future Award by the American Legal & Financial Network's Junior Professionals & Executives Group (JPEG). He currently serves as a member of the Local Bankruptcy Rules Advisory Committee for the District of Massachusetts and as a member of the Steering Committee of the Bankruptcy Section of the Boston Bar Association (where he is also co-chair of the Education Committee).
